Message from the President:

Where has this year gone? Here we are at the mid-way point and not only are we really busy in Double R-land, but as July and August approach we have work. As many of you know, summer can be deadly in the TV and video production business but not this year. Does that bode well for our nation's economy? Let's hope so if this small business is any kind of an indicator. Which brings me to the upcoming holiday. I love the 4th of July. Not only was my wonderful nephew, Dakota, born on the 4th, but also it's a great time to celebrate independence for America and for Double R Productions. I'm proud to say that Double R will celebrate 25 years in business next year and I'm very pleased to say that since our humble beginnings on my kitchen table in 1987, to these many years later our doors are still open. That would not be possible without our many excellent clients who keep coming back and who continue to spread the word about our unique, creative and very efficient approach to their projects. So a big thanks to our clients, old and new. Of course I would not be able to function and be so damned independent without the great Double R team. They really are what make Double R the "best brand in the business." I can't thank them enough. So in that spirit, say thank you to whoever helps you achieve your independence. Then celebrate that independent spirit this upcoming weekend! And as we venture into the third quarter, let's get creative and think about how we can all work together to make our independent dreams come true.

Independently Yours,

President, Double R Productions
